

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Feb 2, 2011

MEDIA CONTACT: Christina Brickley
Christina@c5mediacomm.com
303.718.7709

COLFAX BID ANNOUNCES 2011 BOARD CHAIR AND BOARD REAPPOINTMENTS Board Votes Unanimously -Appoints Leonard Austin 2011 Board Chair

DENVER-- The Colfax Business Improvement District (Colfax BID) announced today the appointment of board member Leonard Austin as Board Chair for 2011 through a unanimous vote of board members. 2011 marks Austin's third term as Colfax BID Board Chair.

"Len's knowledge of the Upper Colfax area is a huge asset to the Board of Directors," said Stephanie Salazar Economic Development Director of the Colfax BID. "His experience with the property owners, area infrastructure and neighbors allow for a level of insight needed at this time of growth and development," added Salazar.

Leonard Austin is the owner of Front Range Services, a commercial and residential planning and maintenance company located on Upper Colfax.

Board Re-Appointments:

Additionally, Leonard Austin and April Sedillos (Triton Properties) were each reappointed for a second term to the Colfax BID Board of Directors.

"With Len and April's continued dedication to the Colfax BID Board of Directors, the board will have the continuity needed to implement current initiatives related the HALO cameras, streetscape program and ongoing economic development programs," said Salazar.

About Colfax BID:

Located on Upper Colfax, the Colfax Business Improvement District is a quasi-governmental entity funded by a portion of property taxes for the area. The Colfax BID was created to promote economic vitality and sustainability for Colfax BID property and business owners as well we create a clean and attractive atmosphere for business. For more information on the Colfax BID, please visit www.colfaxave.com.

###